ADVANCED BUSINESS ANALYSIS AND BUSINESS FINANCE

Course #: C6001L

Pineland Conference Center, 16 Pineland Drive, New Gloucester, Maine

NOVEMBER 5 & 6, 2019—9:00AM—4:00PM

Presented by DiCara Training and Consulting, LLC

course description

Designed for experienced lenders and others with previous credit analysis training. Retail lenders, branch managers, assistant branch managers, commercial lenders and credit analysts.

This program assists private and public sector lenders in analyzing credit worthiness of businesses. During the program, participants will learn how cash is generated and used by enlisting businesses as well as how to develop and analyze financial projections. Time will be spent discussing particular techniques required to analyze start-up businesses.

Throughout the program, actual case studies will be used to demonstrate the credit analysis methods of finance professionals. At the program's conclusion, participants will be able to identify the strengths and weaknesses in businesses and be able to structure effective financing packages.
