ANALYZING THE TAX RETURNS OF BUSINESSES

Course #: C6003L

Pineland Conference Center, 16 Pineland Drive, New Gloucester, Maine

OCTOBER 2, 2019—9:00AM—4:00PM

Presented by DiCara Training and Consulting, LLC

course description

Designed for professionals who have a fundamental understanding of financial statements and business organizations, such as credit analysts, branch managers, loan officers and others in the lending decision process of businesses. The only reliable financial information available from many businesses is contained in tax returns.

When accountant-prepared financial statements are not available, lenders and credit analysts will often need to make a lending decision based on the information contained within tax returns.

Course topics include:

- Business Credit Analysis concepts
- How Business Tax Returns are both similar and different from conventional financial statements.
- Relevant Business Tax Return Schedules & Forms
- Essential questions to ask when using the tax returns of businesses
